Name	Reservation Car Park process
Actors	User
Entry Condition	The person has already done the login
Flow of Events	- User require the availability parking situation - System will elaborate the request and will create the page. - User will indicate the zone where he/she must go and he/she already have a general view of availabilities - System will return a form coherently with the zone indicated - User will compile the form and system will update parking availability - User will receive a notification with the QR code that he/she will use to obtain the access to the parking.
Exit Condition	The system has saved new parking situation an user has received the QR code
Exceptions	If during the reservation the indicated park will not available yet, will be shown an error message and system will redirect user to the parking situation view.
Reached Goals	[G4] [G5] [G7] [G8]